

2023 PITTSFIELD LIONS CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

This award is presented to a senior that is involved in community service and best exemplifies the qualities of the Pittsfield Lions Club. The future career plans of a student entering a public service profession will be taken into consideration, although a public service profession is not required to earn the scholarship. Also, extra consideration will be given to students whose community service has included assisting the Lions Club with their activities. This is a one-time scholarship of up to $500 for a current graduate of Pittsfield High School or Griggsville High School. One letter of recommendation from someone knowledgeable about your community service must be submitted. The winner will be presented their award at the PHS Senior Awards Banquet or the Griggsville High School Awards Night. Applications for this scholarship are due by April 15th.
